

“ OYU TOLGOI IS NO LONGER
A CONSTRUCTION PROJECT.
IT IS A SUSTAINABLE BUSINESS ”

D.Javkhlant - one of Oyu Tolgoi's employees of the year 2013

Meet Jack. He joined Oyu Tolgoi development in 2004. He was named as one of the company's Employees of the year 2013. Together with other young workers, Jack has driven the production of copper concentrate at the operating mine. He has achieved the highest qualification in his profession, 6th grade master crane operator.

Jack has been fighting earth's gravity using his equipment for 34 years. He has lifted and unloaded thousands of tonnes of cargo from the ground. Like many other professions, he can't afford mistakes and needs the utmost responsibility and care when doing his job. At Oyu Tolgoi he is referred to with respect as Big Brother Jack.

He says: "At this crucial moment when we transition from construction to operations, I will share my knowledge and experience with the younger generation. Together we will focus on safety and improving productivity by trusting each other."

Tell us how you are contributing to the Oyu Tolgoi operation. Email online@ot.mn

Please follow Oyu Tolgoi twitter! @OTMongolia

TECHNICAL RELIABILITY IS VITAL FOR A CONTINUUALLY OPERATING BUSINESS

S. Yondonsharav - one of Oyu Tolgoi's employees of the year 2013

He is a capable leader and well respected amongst his peers. Last year he was selected by the workforce as one of Oyu Tolgoi's employees of the year. When he first joined Oyu Tolgoi in 2012, the open pit truck shop was just being established.

Now it is an essential part of the business, ensuring the reliability of the equipment needed to operate the mine. His team has a responsible and challenging job. They keep all of the open pit's machinery working.

He says: "The work that our team does can be compared with the work of paramedics. Our mining operations must continue without interruption. In particular all of our equipment and machinery must be reliable and safe.

The construction of Oyu Tolgoi has been successfully completed and it is a source of personal pride for me to start working with the best of the Mongolian youth to ensure that shipments of our exports continue safely."

Tell us how you are contributing to the Oyu Tolgoi operation. Email online@ot.mn

Please follow Oyu Tolgoi twitter! @OTMongolia